Lexington District One Board tours new schools

LEXINGTON, S.C. — On Wednesday, October 28, the Lexington County School District One Board of Trustees will tour two new schools, Centerville Elementary and Pelion Middle.

The 128,000-square-foot Centerville Elementary, which opened in August of 2020 for the 2020–2021 school year, is designed for 1,000 students and located at 4147 Augusta Highway on a 22.57-acre site.

The new Pelion Middle is located at 325 Main Street in Pelion, directly off Highway 178 on a 54.61-acre site and across from Pelion High School. It opens in January of 2021 during the 2021–2022 school year, will be about 203,000 square feet and should take about 17 months to build. It is designed for 1,200 students with the capacity to serve 1,500 students.

Although a quorum of Board of Trustees members will attend the tour, there will be no business conducted.
